Submission Deadline: September 24, 2021

Art Without Walls is a new sculpture loan program sponsored by the City of Los Altos Public Arts Commission. Art will be exhibited in business districts, parks and green spaces across our City, which currently showcases 35 loaned and owned pieces of art. This outdoor gallery is open year-round and is free for all visitors.

Exhibit art for two years to the Los Altos community which includes potential buyers. The City of Los Altos Public Arts Commission offers an artist's stipend of $1,500.

Currently we are looking for new works representing a variety of outdoor sculpture styles including: kinetic, lighted, mosaics, and large or small pieces of outdoor sculpture.

About Art Without Walls

Artists whose work is selected for inclusion receive a $1,500 stipend to help cover insurance, transportation and other costs. Both the artist and their work will be promoted through local media and in our Art Without Walls walking tour brochure. Selected work will be on loan for a period of two years.

Size Requirements

Sculptures should have bases measuring from 3' x 3' to 6' x 6'. Other installations will need to fit within the constraints of the selected venues, leaving adequate space for pedestrian and bicycle traffic.
